Filing a complaint in Canada shouldn't require a law degree and a free afternoon.

01

A maze of regulators

Municipal, provincial, and federal bodies each own a slice — CCTS for telecom, OBSI for banking, provincial tenant boards, human rights tribunals. No consumer knows where to start.

02

Fear keeps people silent

Tenants fear eviction, employees fear retaliation. Most complaint channels require full identity disclosure up front — so most valid complaints are never filed.

03

Nothing tracks, nothing follows up

Once submitted, a complaint disappears into an inbox. No reference number, no status, no accountability loop back to the complainant.

CCTS TELECOM/TV COMPLAINTS, AUG 2024–JUL 2025 (+17% YOY)

— and that's one of more than a dozen sector regulators and ombudsmen
Canadians have to navigate on their own.

II. THE SOLUTION —

ComplaintCA turns any Canadian's voice into a formal, trackable, AI-drafted complaint — anonymously, in minutes.

Anonymous by default

No forced identity disclosure. Complainants control what's shared with the business, landlord, or authority.

AI routing & drafting

Our AI classifies the issue, drafts a formal complaint, and routes it to the right business, regulator, or legal contact.

7 languages, every province

Built for Canada's full linguistic and jurisdictional map — from Nunavut to Newfoundland.

Six Paths to Justice — one platform.

I

File a Complaint

Turn a grievance into a formal, documented complaint against a business, landlord, or municipality.

II

Free Lawyer & Civil Society

Law Society referrals and independent non-profit legal help.

III

Find My Representative

Locate and contact your elected representative by address.

IV

Cyber Crime Report

Report harassment, threats, and identity theft with guided documentation.

V

Verify a Document

AI risk check on a suspicious email, message, or file before you act on it.

VI

Guides

Find the right authority by province and topic — 10+ published guides today.

From frustration to formal record in under five minutes.

Built like critical infrastructure — because for some users, it is.

Real authentication

Firebase Authentication for accounts — no passwords ever touch our own storage.

Bot & abuse protection

Cloudflare Turnstile and Firebase App Check guard every public submission form.

Hardened by design

Strict Firestore rules, XSS-safe rendering, cryptographically random case references, rate-limited APIs.

Every one of 40.5 million Canadians is a potential user.

YOY GROWTH IN TELECOM/TV COMPLAINTS ALONE (CCTS, 2024–25) — ONE SIGNAL AMONG MANY THAT COMPLAINT VOLUME IS RISING NATIONWIDE

TAM / SAM / SOM sizing: [insert bottom-up estimate — e.g. addressable adults × est. annual complaint rate × monetizable share]. Use this slide to show your own model once usage data is available — investors weight a defensible bottom-up number far higher than a top-down population multiplier.

Free for consumers. Monetized at the edges.

Premium AI Verification

Subscription tier for advanced document/fraud verification and priority AI drafting.

Target price: [$X/mo].

Legal & Clinic Referrals

Referral fees from partner lawyers and legal clinics for cases escalated beyond self-service. Target take rate: [X%].

B2G / Regulator Licensing

White-labelled intake & triage for municipalities, ombudsmen, and regulators who lack modern case-management tools.

Aggregated Insights (opt-in, anonymized)

Sector-level complaint trend reporting for insurers, telecoms, and policymakers — no personal data sold, ever.

01

SEO content engine

Province- and topic-specific guides (banking, telecom, landlord-tenant, CRA, immigration...) capture high-intent search traffic at near-zero CAC.

02

Legal & civic partnerships

Law societies, legal clinics, and non-profits refer clients in — and receive qualified referrals back.

03

Earned media & community

Consumer-protection stories are inherently newsworthy; every resolved case is a shareable proof point.

Legal-tech has funded the lawyer's side. No one owns the consumer's side.
